I've been using the Cozzia Ionic spray to touch up my makeup. It's super moisturizing and keeps my skin feeling soft throughout the day. The purple shade is perfect for me, too, because it helps to offset my redness. I'm usually a neutral girl, but I also like to mix it up a bit by spicing it up with a bright purple lip color. I went with the Amorosa color from the Born Pretty Store's "Venice Collection" and it has a subtle shimmery shine to it. It's really well-pigmented and has a good staying power. It feels lightweight and not at all drying. It also comes in a very pretty packaging with a larger version of the lip color on the inside of the lid and a small mirror on the inside of the base. I really like that little touch! I find that Cozzia works really well for me when I want to touch up my makeup, and I really like that it helps my skin stay moisturized throughout the day. This product was provided at a discounted price in exchange for an honest review. All opinions are 100% my own and I was not compensated in anyway for this review. Please see my Disclosure Policy for more information. Cheaper than the full-sized version January 15, 2014 Reviewer: Amber (Henderson, NV) This is a great lip color, though it's a bit on the bright side. It's a great color for a night out with a couple of coats and even lasts well through lunch and dinner. Perfect shade for my skin tone January 14, 2014 Reviewer: Barbara P. (Annapolis, MD) I like the color. I like the price. It goes on smoothly and didn't feel like it wasn't applied all the way. It is long lasting and gives a nice pop of color. Wow January 14, 2014 Reviewer: Briana (Phoenix, AZ) I absolutely love this lipstick. I love the color, the packaging, and the price. When I got the perfect color I decided I would grab it in the future. It's definitely a keeper for sure. I received this product for free. I was not required to write a review, all views are my own. I find it hard to find a "neutral" red.
